

The NAB, the FCC, and congress should not try to influence competation in this market. XM Radio is providing services and programming not available elsewhere, and is available anywhere in the United States that I travel.